Stamford American

professional Patient Safety Curriculum Guide (2011) was developed to assist in the teaching of patient safety in universities and schools in the fields of dentistry, medicine, midwifery, nursing and pharmacy. It also supports the ongoing training of all health care professionals. The Curriculum Guide is comprised of two parts. WHO Multi-professional Patient Safety Curriculum Guide In 1994, the Indiana State Board of Education, the Commission for Higher Education, and Indiana's colleges and universities developed Core 40, a college preparatory curriculum. The curriculum is designed to better prepare Indiana high school students for success in college and the workplace. Students who plan to attend colleges or universities
